August 19, 2010

On Thursday, August 19, 2010, I will hold Clay Camp II for Grownups. This will be a follow up class for those who have already taken the beginning Clay Camp, and we will hone our skills again, but maybe tackle a larger project you have in mind. You can make several pieces, or concentrate on a bigger piece. Like in the past, we will work all day (9:00 to 4:30) with a sack lunch break, out in the yard.

We will try to pick a glaze day for later on, although at this time of year, so much depends on the humidity level and how fast things dry. The cost of the camp will be $75, like in the past, which includes all clay, firings, and glazes.

We will work all day long and then the pieces will dry for over a week and I will fire them in my Skutt kiln. We will pick a date to meet again so that you can glaze your masterpieces, to prepare for a second glaze firing. The cost of the camp is $75 which includes your clay, all firings, and glazes.

Just fill out the bottom of the page, detach it, and send it by mail with a check. I will send you by e-mail a list of tools and any other details to make this a great summer event for all of us!

Please detach the form and fill out. Mail to me at:
